

Edited by Cristina Da Milano,
Elisabetta Falchetti,
Maria Francesca Guida

Intercultural Rehearsals

Perspectives, reflections and actions for a multicultural society

EDITRICE BIBLIOGRAFICA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editors' note	9
The promoters of Art Clicks	13
Stavros Niarchos Foundation	13
Fondazione MAXXI	14
ECCOM	16
PART 1 - MULTIVOCAL PRELUDE, IN SEARCH OF CONTACT ZONES	19
Concepts and projects for an idea of interculture: ART CLICKS	21
"Living together as equals in dignity": a European utopia	21
ART CLICKS: a response to the White Paper on Intercultural Dialogue	24
Contact zones and emergences as working methods	27
The themes, the characters, the places and the meetings	29
"Inter-generated" projects	59
An Italian Griot	60
Creating a "third space" in Florence Museums	63
"My" Correr	64
Narradici	68
Bolzano and its possible utopia	72
Playground	75
Looking up	79
Participants, their stories and changes Excerpts from the portfolios	82
PART 2 - FROM CONTACT ZONES TO RELATIONSHIP ZONES	111
Heritage as Relationship	113
Interculture as a sustainability process	121

Non verbal aspects of intercultural relationships: space and time	128
Polyphonic Interludes	133
This land is your land	133
The most significant change”	133
Key reflections on ‘interculture’	134
Theatre for linguistic and social inclusion	135
Keywords	139
From Mother Earth, generator of everything	139
Action-music and Creole dialogue-song	140
The spaces of relationship	141
PART THREE - CORAL INSPIRATIONS: FROM RELATIONSHIPS TO VALUES	147
Music in the history of nations and in performance practice: contact zones	149
Values as an anchor	157
Value, evaluate, valorise	165
Polyphonic interludes	169
Plurality of gazes and points of view	169
An inclusive and accessible vision of museums	170
From the friction zone to the creative act	172
The contact zone	174
Keywords	177
Between contact zones and emergence	177
Cultural dimensions	178
Musical dictionary of ‘interculture’	183
PART FOUR - NURTURING RELATIONSHIPS	189
Collective Intelligence: thoughts in movement	191
Creating “third spaces”	206
Co-integration	209
Community storyteller	212
Polyphonic interludes	220
Entering through the listening door	220

Nurturing the relationship in a choir (with multiple voices). Singing to know each other: the multi-ethnic choir as an educational experience in an intercultural perspective	222
Coexistence	227
Perseverance	229
Keywords	231
Words for the encounter	231
Words for 'interculture'	231
Pedagogy of desire	232
PART FIVE - IMAGINING A BETTER FUTURE	235
Letting oneself be guided/inspired by utopias	237
Storytelling, heritage and "interculture"	245
The metaphor of "entanglement" in intercultural relationships. Acculturation, multiculturalism, interculturalism	251
Polyphonic interludes	256
The meeting of worlds and the biology of love	256
Beauty is revolutionary	259
Heritage education in an intercultural perspective: three key preconditions	261
Ideas for change	263
Keywords	265
Routes	265
Musical words for 'interculture'	265
Keywords for change	266
At the end of this journey	270
Acknowledgements	274
Bibliography	276
List of Authors	281